(ed. note) Last week I actually had four people come in to ask about the rest of the joke. Let's see if we can top that response this week. This is a lengthy joke to tell, but well worth the time.

Child Care and Oregon's Students

MILLIONS OF STATE CHILD CARE DOLLARS ARE BEING DIVERTED TO OTHER PROGRAMS

In 1989

The Oregon Legislative Assembly was presented with a bill to create a grant for child care for students on campuses, administered by the OSSC. The money was to be raised by withholding the child care tax credit for upper income families. The bill did pass as a pilot project. Four institutions participated in the project, University of Oregon, Portland State University, Chemeketa Community College, and Umpqua Community College.

In 1991

Unfortunately, during the 1991 legislative session the issue was never addressed, and the pilot project terminated.

Right Now

The funding mechanism remains in place and brings in around $4 million annually. Currently, the revenues rest in the state's general fund.

Child Care and Oregon's Students

Of the 1996 OSA Student Opinion Survey respondents with children . . .

1/3

said child care costs have affected their ability to attend school.

48%

spend more than $150 per month on child care.

3/4

(of all respondents) think additional financial aid should be available to students with children.

60%

said their experience in arranging child care has been difficult.

1/5

are not satisfied with their child care arrangements.

* The OSA Survey of Student Opinion is administered every two years by OSA and DRC Research, professional pollsters and consultants. The sample consists of a stratified random sample of students at all of the seven schools in the Oregon State System of Higher Education.
